Ukrainian Museum & Archives Presents a virtual exhibition - Holodomor: A Remembrance. This marks the 87-year commemoration of the Holodomor Famine-Genocide, which occurred in Ukraine in 1932-33. It is a visual arts presentation featuring the works of Ukrainian-American artist Lydia Bodnar-Balahutrak. In 1991, the artist traveled to Ukraine for the first time. She states: "My eyes and soul were opened to a land that was beautiful but ravaged by the Soviet regime. The people were long-suffering yet hopeful – the culture was rich but sabotaged. Years of Soviet oppression had left their mark and were visible everywhere. Mass graves were being uncovered, revealing horrific historical events long denied by the Soviet government." Developed by Roksolana Karmazyn (Dallas), Chrystia Bryndzia (Houston), Ksenia Rychtycka (Detroit), Anizia Karmazyn (Pittsburgh), and Olya Czerkas (St. Petersburg), the virtual exhibition team worked in collaboration with the artist, who graciously shared her 26 works of mixed-media art presented in the exhibition. From the St. Josaphat Eparchial Office – Prayers in Our Life (Religious Education Materials) - Each month for the next seven months, the Office of Family and Sanctity of Life will be providing lessons and lesson plans for parents to use at home for the instruction of their children on the topic of prayer. All parents and faithful are encouraged to go to the link <https://stjosaphateparchy.com/prayer-in-our-life-lesson-1/> to download materials to use with their families. "A Christian Family's home is the place where members of the family share with God and among themselves the intimacy of love. The family is a community of love, which Saint Paul often calls the Domestic Church. (See Rom. 16:5, 1 Cor. 16:19, Col. 4:15). In this community, the husband and wife, the parents and children, liturgize: they render worship to God by serving one another. It is in the home that a person obtains his or her principal spiritual inheritance: knowledge of God, and respect for parents, the family hearth, the Church, and the earthly homeland." - Catechism of the Ukrainian Catholic Church Christ Our Pascha #654

St. Philip's Fast or Pylypivka - It is a joyful 40-day fast, which begins on November 15, the day after the feast of the apostle St. Philip, and lasts until December 24, Christmas Eve. This fast is meant to prepare us spiritually for the great and solemn holyday – the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ. This is the time given to us to deepen our understanding and awareness of God's mystery – the Incarnation of the Son of God and the coming of the Messiah, the King of Peace, Emmanuel and the Light of the world. It is time for us to find and rediscover true joy of the Nativity of Our Lord through prayer, meditation, and acts of charity, not like it is in the artificial atmosphere of Christmas parties, buying and exchanging gifts and enjoying specially prepared holiday delicacies.
